

Bird Migration Through Urban Landscapes

Thursday
October 26
7:00 pm
Chappaqua
Library

How are birds affected by urban light, noise and buildings on their annual journeys across the continent?

Dr. J. Alan Clark will discuss how he uses recordings of the call notes that most birds use during migratory flight as well as small- and large-scale radar to study how birds migrate through urban landscapes.

Free and open to the public. No reservations needed.

Venue: Chappaqua Library Theater
